Product Description:

The Haakaa Silicone Kids Dinnerware Set is perfect for little ones starting their self-feeding journey! This set includes a Silicone Baby Bib, Silicone Divided Plate and a Bendy Silicone Spoon and Fork.

The Silicone Baby Bib is made of soft 100% food grade silicone, which makes them super safe for little ones to wear! Each bib has a large pocket in the front to catch any falling crumbs or stray bits of food, preventing messy clean-ups after mealtimes. The flexible silicone is gentle on your baby's skin and easy to clean after eating - just wipe with a damp cloth!

The Silicone Divided Plate is the ideal solution for fussy little eaters, with three compartments separating your little one's food into easy-to-eat sections. These plates are made of 100% food grade silicone and are the perfect eco-friendly alternative to harmful plastic and melamine plates, allowing you to rest assured that your baby is safe from harsh contaminants leaching into their food.

Our Bendy Silicone Spoon and Fork are perfectly sized for little hands to hold, with soft edges to protect your baby's delicate gums and teeth. They're flexible and will stay in any shape you bend them, making them ideal for helping your little one scoop up food from all angles! Small grooves on the underside of the handles fit over the edges of your plate, keeping your cutlery in place and preventing them from slipping after they're put down.
